Vice President Biden & Premier Dodik Reaffirm Friendship & Cooperation Between U.S. & Republika Srpska

SARAJEVO - Tuesday, Prime Minister Milorad Dodik met privately with American Vice President Joe Biden and American Ambassador to Bosnia and Herzegovina, Charles English. The meeting was cordial and relaxed, and quickly developed a friendly atmosphere. Vice President Biden expressed his personal commitment to the positive development of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and underscored the support of the United States for the Dayton structure of government, including the continued integrity of the BiH Entities. Premier Dodik reasserted his desire to maintain positive relations with the U.S., and reiterated his support for Bosnia's entry into the European Union and NATO.

Both leaders agreed the future of the Bosnian state is within the EU and NATO, and that the Dayton framework was sufficient to lead them there. The greatest obstacle in meeting the criteria for EU membership is with the internal organization of the state, but that is something its citizens must resolve themselves, remarked Vice President Biden. Premier Dodik suggested that this was entirely possible as long as interpretation of the Dayton framework was not abused.

Their meeting concluded with an agreement that the focus of Bosnia should be on the future, and that political and policy debate within Bosnia should reflect that focus. Premier Dodik concluded that all should now work to calm the situation on the basis of the support that the EU and U.S. are providing Bosnia-Herzegovina, and work to qualify all Bosnian citizens for Schengen visa status.
